Also known as 7 Card Stud Hi/Lo and Stud 8, Stud Eight or Better is essentially a mix of Stud and Razz.

Stud Hi-Lo is a split pot game. The best high hand wins half of the pot and the best low hand wins the other half of the pot. The low hand must qualify with at least five cards below 8 in order to win half of the pot.

This game uses the A-to-5 lowball rankings for low hands, in which straights and flushes do not count against your hand.

It is possible for a player to win both the high and low portions of the pot -- known as "scooping". If there is no qualifying low hand (Tj T* BT /F best high hand scoops the whole pot.

Rules

Stud 8 is almost always played as a fixed limit betting game.

The small bet size

is used during the first two rounds of betting (third and fourth street), and the big bet size is used on fifth street and beyond.

The small bet size is used during the first two rounds of betting (third and fourth street), and the big bet size is used on fifth street and beyond. Each player antes a fraction of the small bet before the cards are dealt. In a $2/$4 limit game, for example, the antes are usually $0.30.

dealt to each player, including two face-down "hole cards" and one face-up

"door card".

two face-down "hole cards" and one face-up "door card".

The player with the lowest Door Card must start the betting with the Bring-In, which is usually about half the size of the small bet. Alternatively, the player may also complete the size of the small
